p mf mf

1. I dream of Jean-ie with the light brown hair, borne, like a va - por
2. I long for Jean-ie with the day - dawn smile ra - dian in glad - ness,
3. I sigh for Jean-ie, but her light form strayed far from the fond hearts

p mf

mp mf

1. on the sum-mer air, I see— her trip-ping where the bright streams— play,
2. warm with win-ning guile; I hear— her mel - o - dies, like joys gone— by,
3. round her na - tive glade; her smiles— have van-ished and her sweet songs— flown,

mp mf

mf

1. hap - py as the dai - sies that dance— on her way.
2. sigh - ing round my heart— o'er the fond— hopes that die,
3. flit - ting like the dreams— that have cheered— us and gone.

1. hap - py— as the dai - sies that dance on— her way.
2. sigh - ing— round my heart— o'er the fond hopes— that die,
3. flit - ting— like the dreams— that have cheered us— and gone.
